1 Peter 1:20-21

1 Peter 1:20-21

²⁰ For He was foreknown before the foundation of the world, but has appeared in these last times for the sake of you ²¹ who through Him are believers in God, who raised Him from the dead and gave Him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

Focal Truth:

God raised Jesus Christ from the dead so that believers can trust and hope in God.

Observations:

1. God's children live in reverence of God during their short stay on the earth. – 1 Pet. 1:17
2. God's children know that Jesus Christ died to save them from their sins. – 1 Pet. 1:18-20
3. God's children live by faith and hope in God who raised Jesus Christ from the dead. – 1 Pet. 1:21

Things to Remember:

1. Holy awe for God marks the daily life of believers.
2. Believers confidently trust God who raised Jesus Christ from death.
3. Hopefulness is grounded in Christ's resurrection from the dead.
4. Rejoice! Christ died and rose again for you!

Daily Use:

1. Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ risen from the dead!
2. Rejoice in God as you trust Him throughout all of life's conditions.
3. Walk by faith and keep hoping in God who raised and glorified Jesus Christ.

1 Pet. 1:20-21 - For He was foreknown before the foundation of the world, but has appeared in these last times for the sake of you who through Him are believers in God, who raised Him from the dead and gave Him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.
