Prov. 5:15,18

Prov. 5:15,18

¹⁵ Drink water from your own cistern, and fresh water from your own well.

¹⁸ Let your fountain be blessed, and rejoice in the wife of your youth.

Focal Truth:

Godly parents enjoy intimate marriages and teach their children to celebrate marriage.

Observations:

1. When godly parents live together in exclusive commitment to each other, they teach their children to celebrate marriage. – Pr. 5:15-17
2. When godly parents live together in joyful love of each other, they teach their children to celebrate marriage. – Pr. 5:18
3. When godly parents live together in tender intimacy for each other, they teach their children to celebrate marriage. – Pr. 5:19-20

Things to Remember:

1. Nothing strengthens a marriage more than absolute commitment to one another.
2. God sees and your children see the kind of way you treat each other in marriage.
3. Intimacy in marriage strengthens from the dangers of temptation outside of marriage.
4. Enjoy your relationship with your husband or wife in all the seasons of life.

5. You cannot cover up adultery! Everyone will know.

Daily Use – Family Challenge:

1. As a couple, take the time to enjoy each other.
2. Thank God for your husband or wife every day.
3. Talk to your children about marriage and God's design for marriage.
4. As a couple, read the Song of Solomon to understand the purpose and joy of marriage!

Drink water from your own cistern and fresh water from your own well...let your fountain be blessed, and rejoice in the wife of your youth.
