

DEAD TO THE WORLD

James 1:27

James 1:27

²⁷ Pure and undefiled religion in the sight of our God and Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their distress, and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

Focal Truth:

Believers must live in purity in an impure world.

Observations:

1. Every believer must live in purity in the world of sin. – James 1:27
2. The world of sin stains the mind and conscience. – James 1:27
3. The stains of the world are washed clean through salvation in Jesus Christ. – Tit. 3:5

Things to Remember and Do:

1. Consider yourself dead to worldly sin that stains your mind and conscience. – Col. 3:5
2. Salvation in Jesus Christ washes out the stains of worldly sin from your mind and conscience. – Tit. 3:5
3. Daily repentance and confessing of our sins keeps us spotless in a world that stains. – James 1:21
4. Daily time in God's word renews and cleanses our minds from the stains of worldly sinfulness. James 1:21
5. Living by God's word will keep you spotless from the stains of sinful worldliness. – James 1:22,25
