

A cinematic scene showing Jesus on the right, with long dark hair and a beard, wearing a white robe over a red tunic. He is looking towards a group of men on the left. The men are dressed in traditional Middle Eastern attire, including turbans and robes. One man in the foreground is looking up at Jesus with an expression of awe or surprise. The background is a blurred outdoor setting with trees and foliage. The overall tone is dramatic and historical.

Everyday Stories of Jesus

Luke 10:36-37

Luke 10:36-37

³⁶ “Which of these three do you think proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell into the robbers’ hands?” ³⁷ And he said, “The one who showed mercy toward him.” Then Jesus said to him, “Go and do the same.”

Focal Truth:

A neighbor is one who shows loving mercy to everyone.

Observations:

1. A lawyer stood up to test Jesus asking who is my neighbor?
2. A neighbor shows loving mercy to everyone whoever they are.
3. A neighbor shows loving mercy to everyone whenever they need it.
4. A neighbor shows loving mercy to everyone whatever the cost.

Things to Remember and Do:

1. Loving our neighbor is fulfilling the law of God.
2. Loving our neighbor is loving others as we love ourselves.
3. Loving our neighbor is the duty of every believer in Christ.

Everyday Stories of Jesus