Spiritual Growth - Luke 13:18

Luke 13:18

¹⁸ So He was saying, “What is the kingdom of God like, and to what shall I compare it?”

Focal Truth:

The kingdom of the Lord Jesus Christ grows in those who believe.

Observations:

1. The kingdom of God grows inside the mind of everyone who receives Jesus Christ. -
Luke 13:18-19
2. The kingdom of God shelters everyone who trusts in Jesus Christ. – Luke 13:18-19

Things to Remember and Do:

1. God's word like seed grows in the minds of everyone who receives it, anywhere it is shared.
2. God's reign exists where the word of God is implanted and believed.
3. God's reign in Christ comes in word and power to save and change those who believe.
4. God's reign in Christ fills and controls the minds of those who are saved.
