Psalm 119:136

Psalm 119:136

¹³⁶ My eyes shed streams of water, because they do not keep Your law.

FOCAL TRUTH:

God's people must pray in holy grief for the sinfulness of men.

Observations

1. God's people should feel holy grief as they see the sinfulness of other men.
2. God's people experience holy grief when they understand the destruction of man's sinfulness.
3. God's people pray in holy grief because of their love for sinful men.

Things to Remember

1. Holy grief is Christ-like grief for the sinfulness of other men.
2. He who has not grieved for his own sin can never grieve the sin of others.
3. While the world is sinning, God's people grieve and pray for them.
4. The self-righteous have no tears for the lost.
5. God's people grieve for the sinner who has no grief for his own sin.

Daily Use:

- Ask God to break your heart as you see the sinfulness of other men.
- Pray that God pours out godly sorrow that leads to repentance on the sins of others.
- Confess your hard-heartedness and lack of holy grief to God for the sins of others.
- Remember - everyone who does not trust in the Lord Jesus Christ will go to hell.

Ps. 119:36 – My eyes shed streams of waters, because they do not keep Your law.
